Clovis, Corpus Christi host stops this weekend on Wrangler Tour

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – The 2007 Wrangler ProRodeo Tour rages on this weekend with a pair of stops separated by some 1,700 miles. Action starts April 25 when the Buc Days Pro Rodeo gets under way in Corpus Christi, Texas, and continues through April 28. On April 27, the 93rd annual Clovis (Calif.) Rodeo starts its weekend run, with the rodeo culminating with the Wrangler ProRodeo Tour Round on April 29.

Corpus Christi and Clovis mark the 10th and 11th stops on the 2007 Wrangler ProRodeo Tour. Cowboys and cowgirls aren't just competing for prize money and glory in these two cities, but earnings that apply toward the Wrangler ProRodeo Tour standings and inclusion into the newly formed playoff system later this summer.

This year's Wrangler Tour consists of 21 rodeos through August. Contestants can choose 15 out of the 21 rodeos to count toward their official Tour Rodeo count. At the conclusion of the 21st rodeo, the top 35 contestants in total Tour money and the "wild card," event champions from the Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo, will move on to the first Tour Championship event Aug. 14-18 in Caldwell, Idaho. From there, the field will be trimmed to a single champion after the three subsequent playoff events in Puyallup, Wash.; Omaha, Neb.; and Dallas. Fox Sports Network and CBS are scheduled to televise the Championship events.

Corpus Christi, a city of nearly 300,000 located on the south Texas coast, is playing host to a Wrangler ProRodeo Tour event for the first time. The four-performance rodeo features a 7:30 p.m. CT performance each night from the American Bank Center arena.

Repeat title Bulldogger Wisness defends crown in mud at Red Bluff

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. – Mud or no mud, steer wrestler Levi Wisness found a way to claim the average championship at the Red Bluff (Calif.) Round-Up for the second year in a row.

Wisness of Keene, N.D., scored his third Wrangler ProRodeo Tour victory of the season Sunday in the mud in Red Bluff, winning the steer wrestling average with a time of 25.7 seconds on three head. He edged Wade Sumpter of La Junta, Colo., who finished a click back at 25.8.

The co-champion of the average title at the Black Hills Stock Show and Rodeo (Rapid City, S.D.) and the winner of both the Wrangler Tour Round and average titles at Rodeo Austin (Texas), Wisness took care of business on Sunday, despite a not-so-textbook run in the Tour round.

"The steer beat me out of there and then my horse slipped about three times leaving the box," Wisness said. "So I was really late. I made a good run when I got to the steer, but I didn't think I had a chance at winning it, hon-

Rodeo News and Notes

► Cowboys hit milestones. According to an updated list of career earnings, the PRCA has gained two more million-dollar cowboys so far this season. At the conclusion of the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo on Feb. 17, three-time and reigning World Champion Bareback Rider Will Lowe not only left town with the average title and $13,563, but he also crossed the $1 million mark in career earnings. The 24-year-old came into the 2007 season with $988,455 and has earned $29,323 so far this year, bringing his career total to $1,017,778.

Lowe's fellow bareback rider Bobby Mote, the 2002 World Champion, joined Lowe in the million-dollar club after his victory and $50,000 first-place check at RodeoHouston on March 17. Mote, of Culver, Ore., came into the 2007 season with $937,982 in earnings and has pocketed an event-best $69,972 this season, for a grand total of $1,007,954 in career earnings.

With the additions of Lowe and Mote, the PRCA now has 70 cowboys who have earned at least $1 million during their careers. ProRodeo Hall of Famer Joe Beaver leads the PRCA's all-time money list with $2,870,132.

► Wrangler NFR tickets. All remaining single performance tickets for the Wrangler National Finals Rodeo will go on sale May 1. Tickets will be sold on a first-come, first-served basis. Each ticket is $39.50 and there is a four ticket limit per household.

Fans may purchase these tickets online at www.NFRexperience.com or by calling toll-free at 1-866-388-3267. The 2007 Wrangler NFR is scheduled for Dec. 6-15.

► Hall of Fame's John Wayne summer. On April 7, the ProRodeo Hall of Fame kicked off a "John Wayne Summer" movie series that will run through August. Famous John Wayne movies are being shown in one of the Hall's theaters the first Saturday of each month during the series in celebration of what would have been The Duke's 100th birthday on May 26. The Hall began the series with Wayne's 1972 film The Cowboys on April 7 and will follow that with The Searchers on May 5, McLintock! on June 2 and True Grit, for which he won the Best Actor Academy Award, on July 7.

As part of the promotion, Colorado Springs country music station Cat Country 95.1 was on-site at the ProRodeo Hall of Fame and conducted live remotes during the day. The radio station will do live remotes from the Hall each Saturday during the movie series, and the first installment of the series was a well-attended affair.

The summer's most popular event each year is the annual ProRodeo Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony, which will be held July 14. The Class of 2007 will be welcomed into the fold at 10 a.m. MT, and fans attending the Ceremony will be entertained by Bill Snow Jr. and the "B" Westerns while they enjoy an Outback Steakhouse lunch.

estly. After I threw him down, I thought maybe I would place third."

Instead, even after a fifth-place time of 7.0 seconds in the Tour Round, Wisness still found his name at the top of the leaderboard.

The Red Bluff Round-Up marked the 10th stop on the 2007 Wrangler ProRodeo Tour, which consists of 21 rodeos from January to August. Contestants can choose 15 out of the 21 rodeos to count toward their official Tour rodeo count and compete for earnings, as opposed to Tour points, as in years past.

At the conclusion of the 21st rodeo, the top 35 contestants in total Tour money and the "wild card," event champions from the Dodge National Circuit Finals Rodeo, will move on to the first Tour Championship event, July 14-18 in Caldwell, Idaho. Fox Sports Network and CBS are scheduled to televise all four Championship events.

Riders in all three roughstock events parlayed Wrangler ProRodeo Tour Round victories Sunday into average titles. Bareback rider Tom McFarland of Wickenburg, Ariz., spurred Big Bend Rodeo's Miss Amerititle for 85 points that catapulted the three-time Wrangler National Finals Rodeo qualifier to the top with a total score of 165 points on two head, good for $6,133

Saddle bronc rider Cody Wright of Milford, Utah, scored 84 points aboard Flying U Rodeo's Black Friday to win the round and the title, scoring 164 points after two rides and earning $6,437.

Bull rider Shane Gordon of Fort Jones, Calif., emerged as Sunday's only rider to stay aboard his bull for the required eight seconds and won the title with a two-head total of 138 points. He pocketed a total of $16,449 that includes ground money from recording the only qualified ride of the Tour Round.

In the timed-event end of the arena, tie-down roper Jake Hannum of Ogden, Utah, took a page from the roughstock riders, rally-
