

WRANGLER TOUR

Header Clay Tryan, right, and heeler Travis Graves won the Justin Boots Championships in Omaha, Neb., the climax of the 2010 Wrangler Million Dollar Tour, presented by Justin Boots. They also set a record for regular-season earnings; both earned more than $146,000 at 2010 Tour rodeos. Photos by Mike Copeman.

What is the Wrangler Million Dollar Tour?

The Wrangler Million Dollar Tour, presented by Justin Boots, showcases the PRCA's top cowboys, in a nationwide series of rodeos that includes two of the top three prize money regular-season rodeos sanctioned by the PRCA: the San Antonio Stock Show & Rodeo and Cheyenne (Wyo.) Frontier Days. Total Tour prize money for the regular 2011 season and playoffs is expected to reach nearly $6.9 million.

There are two levels of competition: Gold and Silver Tour events. Nine of the Tour's 25 participating rodeos are designated as Gold rodeos – those with a committee purse of at least $20,000 in each of the six PRCA events – and the rest are designated as Silver rodeos, with a committee purse of at least $10,000 in each event.

The Wrangler Million Dollar Tour standings are based on total earnings from all 25 Wrangler Tour rodeos

The Tour began Oct. 21 with the American Royal in Kansas City, Mo., and will continue through 14 states before concluding the regular season with the Ellensburg (Wash.) Rodeo, Sept. 2-5. For the fifth consecutive year, the Tour will culminate with an elimination playoff system hosted at two elite PRCA events, the Justin Boots Playoffs in Puyallup, Wash. (Sept. 9-11), and Justin Boots Championships in Omaha, Neb. (Sept. 22-24).

The Justin Boots Playoffs will accept the top 24 cowboys (24 team roping pairs) in the regular-season Tour standings. At the conclusion of the Playoffs in Puyallup, the top 12 contestants (12 teams) in the standings will advance to the Justin Boots Championships at Omaha's Qwest Center. The Championships will consist of two rounds, back to back, followed by a semifinal round and a final round. The top eight contestants after the first two rounds move on to the semifinals with clean slates. The competitors with the top four scores or times in the semifinals will move on to the finals; again, previous scores and times are not a factor. Wrangler Million Dollar Tour champions are determined by the final round scores and times.

In 2010, ESPN2 televised the Justin Boots Playoffs from Puyallup, Wash., and the Justin Boots Championships from Omaha; re-airs were broadcast on ESPN Classic. In 2011, the Pursuit channel will telecast the nine Gold Tour rodeos to 38 million households on Dish Network's channel 240 and DirecTV's channel 608. Great American Country will telecast the Justin Boots Playoffs and Justin Boots Championships to nearly 60 million households on channel 167 on Dish Network and 326 on DirectTV.
